CLASS OF 2015:

On behalf of the 145,000-plus alumni around the world, we would like to welcome you to Duke University. We hope your experiences here will be as rich, memorable, life changing - and as much fun - as ours were.

The Duke Alumni Association (DAA), of which you soon will be a member, has compiled this book of names, faces, and campus moments just for you. We hope it will be helpful as you get to know your classmates and learn about all of the places and activities that characterize life at Duke. You are making memories, starting today, and creating your own legacy, even as you enjoy the traditions of the many Blue Devils who came before you.

Even before you officially join the ranks of alumni when you graduate on that momentous May day four years from now (it will be here before you know it), you'll notice that the DAA is working to engage, connect, and celebrate you with many programs, events, and services. To name a few: class parties, career exploration and networking experiences, homecoming, Forever Duke Block Party on the first day of classes, educational programs, and various volunteer and service activities.

We hope to see you at Forlines House, 614 Chapel Drive, and invite you to take part in the many student-focused activities the DAA sponsors. Please check out everything we do for you - now and after you graduate - at www.dukealumni.com.

Enjoy your Duke Directory. Some of the people you'll see in these pages will become your friends for life.

1924 Women's Hiking Club

1838-39

Union Institute, formerly a private subscription school, is permanently organized by Methodists and Quakers in northwest Randolph County under the leadership of Brantley York (1805-1891).

1842

Braxton Craven (1822-1882) becomes head of the institution.

1851

Union Institute is incorporated by the Legislature of North Carolina as Normal College, with graduates licensed to teach in the public schools of the state.

1856

Normal College is affiliated with the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church, with an agreement to provide preministerial education.

1858

Alumni association is officially chartered, beginning one of the oldest organizations in service to the university.

1859

Name changed to Trinity College. Motto Eruditio et Religio adopted.

1871

Chi Phi is organized with assistance of the alumni association as first student social organization. Alpha Tau Omega follows in 1872, and Kappa Sigma in 1873.

1878

Mary, Persis, and Theresa Giles become the first women to be awarded degrees.

1881

Charles J. Soong from China enrolls, becoming the school's first international student.

1887

John Franklin Crowell (1857-1931) is elected president. Yale blue is adopted as the school color in honor of Crowell's alma mater.

1888

First football game is played, with Trinity defeating the University of North Carolina 16 to 0 on Thanksgiving Day.

1892

Trinity College is relocated to Durham. The board of trustees accepts the offer of Washington Duke and Julian S. Carr, Durham tobaccoists and Methodist laymen, to move the college to their progressive "New South" city. Duke contributes $85,000 for buildings and endowment and Carr donates the site that is now East Campus. A new charter requires that one-third of the trustees be alumni.

1894

John C. Kilgo (1861-1922) is elected president of Trinity.

1838-1839 Randolph County campus

1905 President Theodore Roosevelt speaking on campus

1896

Washington Duke contributes $100,000 for endowment, supplementing it by a like amount in 1899 and 1900. With the first gift, he urges that women, then day students only, be treated equally with men. A women's dorm is built promptly and named the Mary Duke Building.

Joseph Smith Maytubby of Indian Territory, now Oklahoma, becomes the school's first Native-American graduate.

The controversy that became known as the "Bassett Affair" erupted on the Trinity College campus. The resolution of the dispute, which lasted for six weeks, was a milestone for academic freedom in U.S. higher education. The Trinity Board of Trustees turned back widespread appeals for Prof. John Spencer Bassett's dismissal when editorials he wrote for a scholarly journal questioned the prevailing views on race relations. Shortly thereafter, President Theodore Roosevelt extolled Trinity's stand in a campus speech while on a southern political tour.

1904

After intermittent periods of instruction in law during the 19th century, a permanent School of Law is founded.

1910

William Preston Few (1867-1940) is inaugurated as president of Trinity.

1917

Charles R. Bagley '14 is selected as college's first Rhodes Scholar.

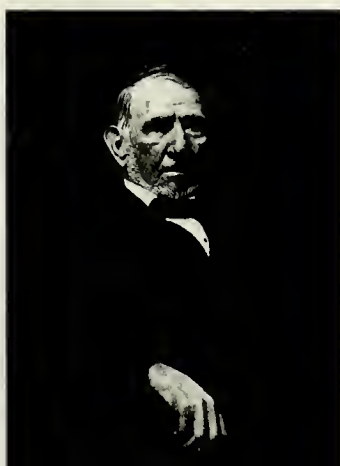

1919

Phi Beta Kappa chapter is chartered, with the first installation of members in 1920.

1924

Trustees change Trinity name to Duke University in honor of Washington Duke and his family. This transition becomes possible when James B. Duke formalizes the family's historic pattern of philanthropy with the creation of The Duke Endowment, a $40-million trust fund, the annual income of which is to be distributed in North and South Carolina among hospitals, orphanages, the United Methodist Church, and four institutions of higher education, the principal one being a new university built around Trinity College.

The Trinity Campus (now East Campus) is rebuilt with the addition of eleven red brick Georgian-style buildings.

The School of Religion (now the Divinity School), the first new school of the new university, opens.

1927-30

Spectacular Gothic campus of native Hillsborough stone is built one mile west to house the undergraduate Trinity College for men and professional schools.

1928

Ph.D. degree is awarded for the first time.

1930

The Woman's College opens on East Campus, and Trinity College for men and the School of Medicine and Hospital open on West Campus.

1932

Chapel is first used at commencement, although it is not completely finished and dedicated until 1935.

1939

Sarah P. Duke Gardens is dedicated.

College of Engineering is organized out of long-standing engineering curriculum. In

John C. Kilgo

1966, the name is changed to School of Engineering in recognition of its program in graduate study and research and professional status.

1941

Robert Lee Flowers (1870-1951) is elected president of Duke.

1949

A. Hollis Edens (1901-1968) becomes president of Duke.

1953

James B. Duke Professorships are inaugurated with the announcement of 13 initial appointments.

1954

Newly completed administration building is named for George G. Allen.

1955

Renovated and renamed Flowers Building is dedicated for use by the Student Union, a student-led organization that planned and carried out campus-wide recreational and cultural activities.

1960

J. Deryl Hart (1894-1980) is elected president of Duke.

1961

Admissions policy is amended to affirm equality of opportunity regardless of race, creed, or national origin. This is accomplished in a two-step process, with graduate and professional schools first and the undergraduate colleges following in 1962.

1963

Douglas M. Knight (1921-2005) is elected president of Duke.

1968

Approximately 1,500 students and faculty join a prolonged nonviolent Silent Vigil in the Main Quadrangle in front of Duke Chapel. Beginning as a memorial upon hearing of the assassination of Martin Luther King Jr., the protest focuses upon campus issues of a minimum wage and collective bargaining for custodial and dining hall employees.

Major innovative curriculum revision is phased in with the number of courses replacing semester hours as graduation requirements, and with much greater emphasis on flexibility of course selection, tutorials, and small group learning experiences.

Art Museum is dedicated on East Campus.

School of Business Administration, the last of the schools requested by James B. Duke, is established. The name was changed to the Fuqua School of Business in honor of benefactor John Brooks Fuqua in 1983.

A major library addition, named in honor of William R. Perkins, opens, permitting the doubling of every library service.

A. Hollis Edens Residence Hall and Paul M. Gross Chemical Laboratory are named.

Terry Sanford (1917-1998), former governor of North Carolina, is elected president of Duke.

1972

Young Trustee position is established for the board of trustees, allowing a student or recent graduate to serve.

Woman's College and Trinity College merge, becoming Trinity College of Arts and Sciences.

1974

Mary Duke Biddle Music Building is dedicated.

1981

Duke Hospital North is dedicated.

1982

Joseph M. and Kathleen Price Bryan University Center is dedicated.

Duke Governing Student Organizations

Duke University Campus Council

As representatives of the residential student body, the Duke University Campus Council is the primary governing body of residential life issues. From East Campus residence halls to West Campus quads, Campus Council provides students with the unique opportunity to shape their residential experience. It strives to enhance campus life by implementing fair and thoughtful policies, organizing worthy campus-wide events, and providing supplemental funding to other student organizations for on-campus events. As the umbrella organization for both quad and class councils, it is the council's goal to make living on campus a safe, educational, and enjoyable experience for all.

www.duke.edu/cc

Duke Student Government

Duke Student Government serves as a voice for Duke students on campus. Executive and legislative members work to represent their constituents in all issues, including but not limited to improving facilities management and Krzyzewskiville.

www.dsg.duke.edu

Duke University Union

The student-led Duke University Union provides a diverse range of cultural, intellectual, educational, recreational, and social programming to complement the academic experience of Duke University students and to provide enrichment for university faculty, staff, and employees, and the surrounding community. In cooperation with the staff of the Office of Student Activities, the University Union serves as a leadership training ground for its officers, chairs, and committee members.

Through experiential learning, they develop knowledge and appreciation of professionalism and the fundamental management skills of effective motivation, organization, and communication.

The Origins of the Blue Devil

During World War I, the Chasseurs Alpins or “Blue Devils,” were well-known French soldiers. They first gained attention when their unique training and alpine knowledge was counted upon to break the stalemate of trench warfare in their native region of the French Alps.

When the United States entered the war, units of the French Blue Devils toured the country helping raise money in the war effort. Irving Berlin captured their spirit in song describing them as “strong and active, most attractive...those Devils, the Blue Devils of France.”

As the war was ending in Europe, the Trinity College Board of Trustees lifted its quarter-century ban of football on campus. After playing an intramural schedule for one year, Trinity began intercollegiate competition in 1920. That first year the team was referred to as the Trinity Eleven, the Blue and White, or the Methodists (as opposed to the Baptists of Wake Forest).

In September 1921, the student newspaper, the Trinity Chronicle, launched a campaign for a “catchy name, one of our own possession that would be instantly recognizable nationwide in songs, yells, and publicity.” At a campus pep rally to stir up enthusiasm, it was pointed out that Georgia Tech was gaining recognition as the “Golden Tornadoes” and that rival North Carolina State College had recently adopted the name “Wolf Pack.” There were numerous nominations, including Catamounts, Grizzlies, Badgers, Dreadnaughts, and Captains, which was in honor of Coach W.W. “Cap” Card.

Believing a choice utilizing the school colors of dark blue and white to be appropriate, the newspaper editors urged a selection from the nominations Blue Titans, Blue Eagles, Polar Bears, Blue Devils, Royal Blazes, or Blue Warriors. None won strong favor, but Blue Devils apparently had enough support to elicit the criticism that it would arouse opposition on the Methodist campus “for obvious reasons,” and that it might jeopardize football if a controversial name were used at that particular time. The football season passed with no official selection of a name.

As the campus leaders from the Class of 1923 made plans for their senior year, they decided to select a name since the desired results by democratic nomination and vote had been inconclusive.

The editors of the Archive and Chanticleer agreed that the newspaper staff should choose a name and “put it over.” Thus William H. Lander, as editor-in-chief, and Mike Bradshaw, as managing editor of the Trinity Chronicle, began the academic year 1922-23 referring to the athletic teams as the Blue Devils. Their class had been the first post-war freshmen, and the student body was full of returning veterans, so the name needed no explanation. Acknowledging that it was somewhat unpopular, they nevertheless believed it to be the best name nominated.

Neither the college press nor the cheerleaders used the name that first year. The Chronicle staff continued its use and, through repetition, Blue Devils eventually caught on. Today the origin of the university mascot is virtually forgotten, even though its instant, national recognition has long been established.

Capping a successful 1994 season (8-3), the football team plays in the Hall of Fame Bowl, Duke's eighth bowl appearance and the first since 1989.

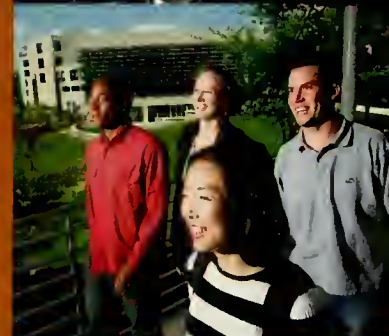

Academic year opens with East Campus primarily for first-year students. New dormitories, the first opened on East in more than 30 years, are named Randolph in honor of Randolph County, the original location of Trinity College, and Blackwell after Blackwell Park, the Durham County fairground and site donated in 1892 for the relocated campus.

School of the Environment is renamed the Nicholas School of the Environment in recognition of a $20-million gift by Peter M. Nicholas, Trinity graduate in the Class of 1964. The gift, the largest exclusively for endowment in the history of Duke, supports a school with an emphasis on interdisciplinary study that has evolved from the founding of the School of Forestry and the Duke Marine Lab in 1938.

Upgrades to campus recreational facilities are begun with the opening of the Keith and Brenda Brodie Recreational Center on East Campus.

Duke is ranked #4 in U.S. News and World Report survey, its highest ranking ever.

Peter Nicholas '64 and Ginny Lilly Nicholas '64 pledge $25 million to support faculty through the Nicholas Faculty Leadership Initiative.

The Duke women's golf team wins second national championship in four years.

Four faculty members in science and engineering receive Presidential Early Career Awards at the White House.

2003

President Keohane announces plans to retire in June 2004; after an extensive search, Richard H. Brodhead, dean of Yale College and the A. Bartlett Giamatti Professor of English at Yale University, is elected Duke's ninth president.

Who's Who in Duke University Administration

Zoila Airall Assistant Vice President of Student Affairs, Campus Life. Campus Life comprises the Office of Student Activities and Facilities, the Community Service Center, and five cultural centers: the International House; the Center for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Life; the Multicultural Center; the Mary Lou Williams Center for Black Culture; and the Duke Women's Center. Airall works closely with staff members who enhance student engagement through advocacy, advising, leadership development, and experiential education.

Lee D. Baker Dean of Academic Affairs. Besides his appointment as dean for Trinity College of Arts & Sciences, Baker teaches in the cultural anthropology department, focusing on the history of anthropology. He has published in such subjects as socio-linguistics and afrocentricity. In 2007, he received the Richard K. Lublin Distinguished Award for Teaching Excellence.

Richard H. Brodhead President of Duke University. You probably have a good idea of what he does, but if you'd like to learn more — or see if you're right — there's lots of information on the president's website about who he is and what he's been doing at Duke since he arrived in 2004. During orientation, he'll speak in Duke Chapel and then on another occasion host a reception so you can meet him and his wife, Cynthia. He likes talking with students (before coming to Duke, he spent 32 years at Yale University, teaching English and then serving as dean), so consider signing up to visit him during his regularly scheduled office hours (again, on the president's website). Or stop and talk with him when you see him walking around campus or attending Duke cultural and sporting events.

Bill Chameides Dean of the Nicholas School of the Environment. Chameides, who was named dean in 2007, has more than 30 years in academia as a professor, researcher, teacher, and mentor. He also served a three-year stint as the chief scientist of the Environmental Defense Fund. You can follow the dean on his blog, www.TheGreenGrok.com.

Thomas Katsouleas Dean of the Pratt School of Engineering. Katsouleas was professor of electrical engineering and electrophysics at the University of Southern California and the school's former vice provost for information services. He was named dean of the Pratt School in 2008. As an expert in high-performance computing, his primary research focus is applying plasma physics to improve and miniaturize particle accelerators.

Bruce Kuniholm Dean of the Sanford School of Public Policy. Kuniholm A.M. '77, Ph.D. '76, A.M. '77 is professor of history and public policy, specializing in diplomatic history and U.S. foreign policy in the Near and Middle East. He's had two stints as leader of the Sanford School (formerly the Sanford Institute): 2005 to the present, and 1989 to 1994, and was vice provost for academic and international affairs in 1996-2001.

Peter Lange Provost. Lange is the university's chief academic officer, responsible for all aspects of Duke's teaching and research mission. The provost devotes much attention to the faculty appointment, promotion, and tenure process; to the content of Duke's various academic programs; and to Duke's emphasis on interdisciplinarity and internationalism. In addition, the provost deals with issues concerning admissions, financial aid, and information technology. His office is located down the hall from President Brodhead's in Allen Building. Feel free to stop by any time.

Donna Lisker Associate Dean of Undergraduate Education. Lisker, who was named associate dean of undergraduate education in the fall of 2007, was director of the Women's Center for nearly nine years. She also founded and co-directs the Baldwin Scholars, a four-year leadership program for female undergraduates, and she teaches courses for Women's Studies as an adjunct faculty member. She is an avid masters rower. Her current research interests include women's leadership and gender and sports.

Larry Moneta Vice President for Student Affairs. Student Affairs oversees many of the departments and services that support students, especially outside of the classroom. For example, Residence Life, the Dean of Students office, Career Services, our cultural centers, Student Health, and many other services are part of Student Affairs. Moneta works very closely with student leaders on a variety of issues that affect student life. He answers all his own email and enjoys getting emails directly from students who want to know why things are they way they are or how they can be improved. He has worked at several other universities and came to Duke in 2001.

Steve Nowicki Dean of Undergraduate Education. Nowicki joined the Duke faculty in 1989, was appointed dean of the natural sciences in 2004, and, in 2007, was named Duke's first dean of undergraduate education. In addition to being dean, Nowicki is a member of the Duke University Pep Band, balancing his professional time between administration, teaching, research, and basketball games.

2001 The John Hope Franklin Center for Interdisciplinary and International Studies

2002 NCAA Women's Golf Championship

2004 Richard H. Brodhead

Peter and Ginny Nicholas make the largest gift in university history, $72 million, on the final day of the fund-raising campaign they have co-chaired for the past eight years. Their December 31 gift brings the Campaign for Duke total to a record $2,361,205,387, the fifth largest in American higher education history and the largest for a university in the South.

2004

The West-Edens Link residence is named Keohane Quad for outgoing president Nannerl O. Keohane.

Richard H. Brodhead is inaugurated as Duke's ninth president and the fourteenth leader of the institution.

The first class of Baldwin Scholars is selected.

Nancy C. Andrews, M.D., Ph.D., an internationally renowned researcher and dean for Basic Sciences and Graduate Studies at Harvard Medical School, is appointed dean of Duke's School of Medicine, its first woman leader and the only woman to lead one of the nation's top 10 medical schools.

The 280,000-square-foot French Family Science Center opens, featuring research and teaching laboratories for genomics, biological chemistry, materials science, nanoscience, physical biology, and bioinformatics.

The Duke Endowment gives $50 million, the largest single donation ever received by the Duke University Medical Center, for the Medical Education Facility, Pediatric Care.

Duke names Abdullah T. Anteppli as the school's first Muslim chaplain, a full-time position that provides services ranging from pastoral care to teaching about Islam.

Julia Parker Goyer is named Rhodes Scholar, the 42nd Duke graduate to be so honored.

2009

Alumni House, home of the Duke Alumni Association, is dedicated and renamed Forlines House in honor of John A. Forlines Jr. '39, former Duke trustee, alumni association president, and recipient of the Distinguished Alumni Award for 1994-95.

Duke sets new record of more than 23,750 applications for admission to the Class of 2013, an increase of 3,400 over the previous year and the largest increase on record.

The Sanford Institute becomes the Sanford School of Public Policy, Duke's tenth school.

2010

Coach K marked his 1,000th career game at Duke, and the men's basketball team went on to win its fourth national title. The men's lacrosse team won its first national title.

Duke graduate student Julia Gaffield discovered the only known printed copy of Haiti's Declaration of Independence.

The university broke ground on K4, Duke's newest residence hall.

Laurie L. Patton, the Charles Howard Candler Professor of Religions at Emory University and director of Emory's Center for Faculty Development and Excellence, will become the next dean of the faculty of Arts and Sciences at Duke University beginning in July. Duke President Richard H. Brodhead and Provost Peter Lange announced Wednesday.

Richard Riddell Vice President and University Secretary. Riddell coordinates the activities of the board of trustees, oversees university ceremonies such as commencement, and manages hiring and review processes for senior university officials. He is special assistant to President Richard H. Brodhead, functioning as the presidential chief of staff, and holds appointment as the Mary D.B.T. and James H. Semans Professor of the Practice of Theater Studies.

Mike Schoenfeld '84 Vice President for Public Affairs and Government. Schoenfeld came to Duke in July 2008 from Vanderbilt University, where he was vice chancellor for public affairs. He is Duke's chief communications strategist and spokesperson and oversees all issues relating to public affairs and government relations in Washington and at the state and local levels.

Bob Shepard Vice President for Alumni Affairs and Development. Shepard oversees the university's Alumni Affairs and Development programs; the offices of Alumni Affairs, University Development, and Alumni and Development Communications report directly to him. You will be invited to participate in events and programs sponsored by these offices, including a welcome party during orientation week, the annual Career Week, annual class reunions, and the Annual Fund's Phonathons.

Tallman Trask III Duke University Executive Vice President. Trask is the chief business and financial officer for Duke, responsible for the management of all financial and administrative services of the university. He provides leadership for the various operations and activities that serve faculty, staff, students, alumni, visitors, and friends of the university. Of special interest to first-year students, Trask oversees all campus services, OIT, and the university architect. He has been at Duke since 1995 and always welcomes the opportunity to speak with students about their ideas to improve the campus.

Sue Wasiolek '76, M.H.A. '78, LL.M. '93 Assistant Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students. More commonly known as Dean Sue, Wasiolek completed a Bachelor of Arts and a Masters of Health Administration at Duke. She earned a law degree at North Carolina Central University in 1989. In her current role at Duke, she oversees personnel, programs, and budgets in a variety of student support/service areas including orientation, judicial affairs, mediation, parents' programs, fraternity and sorority life, BlueSPARC, off-campus housing, and emergency response. Dean Sue serves as a pre-major academic adviser to first-and second-year students and adviser to several student organizations. She also teaches a class on education law. Her advice to students: "Identify your passion — what gives you energy on a day-to-day basis." Her passions are Duke students and exercise. All students are welcome and encouraged to drop by her office at 102 Flowers Building.

Kevin White Vice President and Director of Athletics. White came to Duke in May 2008 from the University of Notre Dame, where he was athletics director for 8 years. He is a past president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and past president of the Division I-A Athletic Directors Association. He manages Duke's 26 varsity, 34 club, and numerous intramural sports teams.

Sterly Wilder '83 Associate Vice President, Alumni Affairs (the administrative branch of the Duke Alumni Association). Wilder represents the 135,000+ alumni within the university and around the globe. In addition to her role within the Office of Alumni Affairs, she is very active on-campus, serving as an academic adviser to first-year and sophomore students and as assistant university marshal. The alumni association sponsors many on-campus programs for the undergraduate students, including Homecoming, Career Week, and this directory.

Phail Wynn Vice President for Durham and Regional Affairs. After retiring as president of Durham Technical Institute, Wynn came to Duke in January 2008. He coordinates Duke-Durham relations and oversees the university's regional involvements and contributions with neighboring communities, businesses, and universities.

Kim Hanauer '02 Director of Young Alumni and Student Programs for the Duke Alumni Association. Hanauer manages the university-wide Homecoming effort, and the many student campus programs that the Duke Alumni Association sponsors throughout the year. Through alumni association programs, she hopes that you will become further engaged with the Duke community, the Class of 2014, and Duke alumni around the world.

BLUE AND WHITE

FIGHTING SONG

G. E. LEFTWICH, Jr.

Tempo di March

Duke we thy an-thems raise — For all thy prais - - es un - told We'll sing for the Blue and White Whose co - lours we un fold Firm stands her line of blue For they are loy - al through and through Fight - ing with the spir - it true All for the love of old D. U.

Fight we'll fight — With all our strength and might Win we can! So here we give a hand: Hey Rah Rah Rah Rah D - U - K - E Rah.

How to be a Cameron Crazy!

The Basics:

Duke fans are CLASSY, CREATIVE, and FUNNY.

Above all else, don't take yourselves too seriously.

Screaming "Go to hell, Carolina, go to hell" is always appropriate, but try to refrain from cheers that involve profanity.

Standard Cheers:

"Let's go, Duke!"

"Here we go, Devils, here we go!" clap-clap

"Let's go, Devils!" clap-clap, clap-clap-clap

"Go, Devils, go!" clap-clap-clap

Start these cheers loud and slow, and try to sustain them for a 35-second shot clock. If the band is playing during any of these cheers, try to follow the beat of the drums.

On bad calls, try chanting "We beg to differ," "I'm blind, I'm deaf, I wanna be a ref," "Three refs, no clue," or simply, "No! No! No!"

Cameron Etiquette:

Starting right away, you will hear the standard cheers. It might take a few minutes to catch on, but join right in, because the important thing is to BE LOUD. If you're not making noise, you're not doing your part.

As Cameron Crazies, we don't sit during the game...so go to the gym and build up those calf muscles.

On the cheers that speed up, make sure you start them SLOW.

If you invent a new cheer, tell it to the people around you and make sure to go slow. This way, everyone has a chance to catch on.

While taunting a player, physical appearance or stupid actions are fair game; however, be careful not to cross the line. Things like drug addictions or assault charges are serious issues, and not suitable for Cameron.

BE LOUD, BE LOUD, BE LOUD!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Duke's Original Campus

East Campus History

From 1925 to 1930, East Campus was Duke University. Even while the new buildings were going up, instruction continued, with five classes graduating during that time. Duke University was formed in 1924 around Trinity College, a school that had been established in 1838 in Randolph County, North Carolina, and had moved to Durham in 1892. The tract of land that became Trinity's campus had been the city's fairgrounds; a racetrack was located about where Baldwin Auditorium now stands. Leaders of Durham's tobacco industry supported the college. Julian S. Carr donated the property, and Washington Duke provided funds for the move and for buildings. Three of the original structures are still in use. Epworth Inn, a residence hall, and Crowell Science Building, now used by the Division of Student Affairs, were built in 1892. The Ark, built in 1898, was the site of the second intercollegiate basketball game in the state — Trinity versus Wake Forest in 1906 (Wake won, 24-10). It has also served as a bowling alley, a dining hall, and a student activities center.

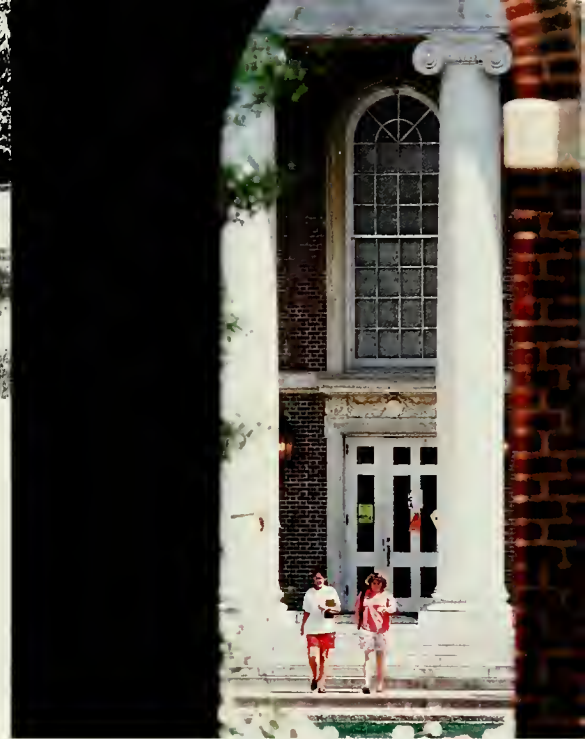

In 1896, Trinity's president, John C. Kilgo, invited the noted African-American educator Booker T. Washington to speak. Trinity thereby became the first white institution of higher education in the South to host him. In 1905, President Theodore Roosevelt visited the campus, and praised the faculty and trustees for their pioneering stand on academic freedom in the Bassett Affair of 1903. As Trinity's reputation and enrollment grew, so too did the campus. By 1903, it consisted of 12 buildings. In 1904, the Law School was founded, and housed in the East Duke Building. The statue of The Sower, in front of East Duke Building, was given by Washington Duke's son, James B., in 1914. Several professors lived on "Faculty Row" inside the campus wall, a few yards west of the present Buchanan Boulevard. The wall was a gift of another of Washington Duke's sons, Benjamin; a statue of Ben, unveiled in 1999, stands in front of Baldwin Auditorium.

In 1924, the university was founded, being named in honor of Washington Duke. James B. Duke, who had made fortunes in both the tobacco and electrical power industries, provided $19 million for building and equipping the new school. In 1930, the Woman's College of Duke University opened on the Georgian-style East Campus, and Trinity College for men and the university's graduate and professional schools opened on the Gothic-style West Campus. In 1972, the men's and women's colleges were merged to form our present Trinity College of Arts and Sciences.

Student life on East has been shaped by the arts, by engineering, public service, and alternative residential arrangements. In fact, our first co-ed dorm was established there in 1896, thanks to a donation from Washington Duke, who favored equal educational opportunities for men and women. There were not enough women students enrolled to fill the new women's dorm, so President (later Bishop) Kilgo hand-picked male students to occupy the vacant rooms. In the 1930s, engineering students lived in Southgate and took most of their classes on East; the Branson Building once housed an engineering lab.

Wilson House, beside the Union Building, has been the site of a number of innovative housing experiments. The dorm's residents offered a number of house courses, and produced The Wilsonian, a highly regarded dorm publication. In 1970-71, SHARE (The Student House for Academic and Residential Experimentation) was started in Wilson House. It later moved to Epworth, where the residents had been offering courses and workshops in weaving, silk screening, and film. Duke's Institute of the Arts was established in 1981 to integrate the arts into the educational process, particularly at the undergraduate level. It's located in the Bivins Building, and has hosted an Open House for the Arts, held in the fall.

Due perhaps to its proximity to downtown Durham, East Campus has often housed our public and civic service organizations. Trinity students helped stock Durham's woodpile for the poor during the harsh winter of 1918. During World War II, Woman's College students formed the College Organization for General Service (COGS), which assisted Duke and Durham in the war effort. Now the Community Service Center has its offices in the Crowell Building, continuing the traditional town-gown cooperation between Duke and Durham.

The Trinity campus has seen a full range of the collegiate life and continues its role as a vital part of Duke University and a reminder of its roots. Now members of your first-year class are invited to contribute their experiences to the ongoing history of the East Campus.
